Understanding the Puzzle of Your Behaviour

ESI® is fast becoming the recognised tool of 21st Century to effectively manage changes in behaviour. Highly recommended for use when coaching, counselling, performance managing staff and for achieving those 'hard to reach' goals.

Do you want to add more effective tool to your kit? Would you like to be better equipped to assist people in their own 'change' process?

Change is the process of 'becoming different'. Some people want small changes while others desire big changes in their lives. Whatever the desire, being accredited in the ESI® Mapping Tool and ESI® TEAMS will give you the tools to assist with this change.

About your presenter:

Jan Sky [DipCH DipCS RMASCH PM]

Jan is the author of the book "The Many Parts of You". She is professional speaker, coach, corporate trainer and creator of ESI®. She is passionate about developing high performing people and will give you the secrets of discovering 'the many
